

RYAN SPECIALTY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

For college students, particularly juniors and seniors, the Ryan Specialty Internship Program aims to provide a best-in-class hybrid learning experience for those interested in pursuing careers in insurance and risk management.

- This eight-week program exposes interns to tremendous opportunities across the insurance industry, providing access to some of the industry's top producers and underwriters who will share their experiences, insights and knowledge.
- The program offers an opportunity to learn more about the insurance market, specialty lines, wholesale brokerage and underwriting in both a binding authority capacity and as part of a managing general underwriter.
- The program consists of both a virtual component and an in-office training experience, allowing for networking and collaborating with interns across the country and in various parts of the organization through group work and project-based assignments.
- Many of our interns have continued through Ryan Specialty University to become full-time Ryan Specialty employees.

RYAN SPECIALTY UNIVERSITY FOUNDATIONS PROGRAM

For recent college graduates and insurance professionals entering wholesale distribution, the Ryan Specialty University Foundations Program is an industry-leading career development program designed to provide you with the tools necessary for a successful career in the fast-paced world of surplus and specialty lines.

- The Foundations Program begins with an intense six-week basic training program where you will learn the details of excess and surplus lines, wholesale broking and MGU / program underwriting. It is taught by some of the best brokers and underwriters in the business and has proven to build a knowledge base and relationships that have launched many successful careers.
- After basic training, RSU continues through a mentorship program and specific training offerings supplementing on-the-job learning. During the early years of your career, this training will help keep you on an accelerated learning path.
- RSU also offers a boot camp focused on sales mastery and business planning for your launch as a broker or production underwriter.
- The programs of RSU, together with the unmatched resources of Ryan Specialty, give you all the tools to take your career to incredible heights.
